I have brought a set of plastic feet for the solar panel, I was impressed by the way the solar panel is clamped in place, and there is no need to drill and screw the panel frame. I would have liked to just glue the feet onto the roof, no screws, but these feet don't have the area I would like to give sufficient glued surface. OK having been ...

Solar Panels. B: Cool. So solar you've touched on that a few times you've said minimum 600W. I guess it's depending on the caravan as well on the roof and where everything fits but we ideally try and get how many panels up there and what size? A: Yes, four 180W's or four 160W's depending on how we fit-up there, it's definitely ideal. It really depends on your ...
