Why should you attend Solarpower Europe?

Last year's event attracted over 1,800 participants from 60 countries and reinforced its position as global hub for PV research, development and networking. Join SolarPower Europe at the 41st European Photovoltaic Solar Energy Conference and Exhibition in Vienna, the leading event for solar energy innovation.

In solar power generation, solar cells play a core role in converting light energy directly into electrical energy. The biggest problem related to this method of power generation is variations in the amount of power generated, which depend on the weather and the length of the day and night. When such an unstable power source is connected to the ...

On April 8, 2024, another total solar eclipse will track across the U.S., causing perhaps an even greater loss of solar power generation. Although this will be the second total solar eclipse visible in the U.S. in less than seven years, these events are a rare occurrence. Nevertheless, they present a unique challenge to power grid
